

MARKING AND FEEDBACK

The green highlighter is for achievements. Identifying your academic achievements within your work as well as highlighting your personal achievements for house points in the learning objective bar.

The pink highlighter is used to underline corrections and/ or next steps, to help you in identifying what you need to edit within your work to improve it. Teacher explicitly identifies what and how the work needs to be corrected.

The yellow highlighter is for when you have completed the next steps and corrections. The yellow highlighter is to allocate a specific space for pupils to make corrections.
